

2011 JUNIOR NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

North West Parks
& Tourism Board

The South African Freshwater Bank Angling Federation and the North West Parks and Tourism Board will host the 2011 Junior National (Angling) Championships at the Bloemhof Dam Nature Reserve. The Championships kick-off with 2 days practice sessions on the 9th and 10th December 2011. The 3-day Championships begin on the 12th till 14th December 2011 at Verlatenkraal (competitions venue).

The SAFBAF and NWPTB partnership will for the first time, showcase talent built during 2011, through the Schools Angling Legacy Project developed for the Bloemhof and Christiana under 13's and 18's local boys and girls. The project began with 120 children and 16 teachers. The talent development workshops and practice sessions have so far produced 40 best performing youths, out of which a team of 8 has been selected to participate in the 2011 Junior National Championships.
